

DESERTING THE COLONY.

Jewish Refugees Do Not Like the Estelville Experiment.

ESTELVILLE, N. J., June 22.—The Jewish refugee colony at this place is being deserted. The colonists charge General Burbridge with keeping the reward of their labors and leaving them nothing for their toil. Fifty-two-story frame dwellings were erected, and with each was fifteen acres of land. Each family was provided with the necessary household articles and agricultural implements. They were to pay $500 in three annual installments for their homes and land. The first was paid by the Aid Society, but now the second is about due, and the money must come out of their own pockets, hence the moving out. The colonists have been frugal, and have probably saved every penny they derived from their labor.

The refugees are averse to manual labor, and little work has been out. General Burbridge is a Kentuckian, who raised a regiment of soldiers, and his native State was made unpleasant for him at the close of the war. He engaged in a controversy with Congressman Blackburn two years ago, which almost ended in a duel.

Robbing Civil Service Applicants.

WASHINGTON, June 22.—Civil service applicants are being fleeced at every turn, and by the time the Commission sits, examines and rejects them they will not have money enough left to take them home. The traps set for them are many. One advertiser announces himself as a teacher of large experience in preparing students for competitive examination, and adds that he can assure those who take lessons from him that they will be successful when they appear before the Civil Service Board. Another is very mysterious about his system, and the knowledge he possesses on the subject. He advertises that his system robs the Commission's examination of all terrors, making it easy to meet every question.

Missing Link Discovered.

RIO DE JANEIRO, June 22.—The existence of a tribe of tailed Indians in Paraguay is asserted on apparently good authority. One of them, a boy seven or eight years old, has been captured, and excites much wonder, having a tail six to eight inches long. The boy is very ugly, but his body is not covered with hair. He has been photographed. A brother of the boy, in possession of Col. Rudecinda Roca, has also a tail, and it is said the whole tribe is similarly adorned. This tale of a tail is vouched for by Dr. Luiz Pizzarello, an Italian.

Youthful Depravity.

JERSEY CITY, June 22.—Three little girl thieves, Jennie Sebastian, Katy Martin, and Susan Hayes broke open a car in the freight yard of the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western railroad, and carried off about fifty pounds of sugar, some potatoes and other articles. The father of the Sebastian girl and the mothers of the other girls had been in the habit of taking the proceeds of their robberies home. The Judge of the First District Police Court released the children and detained the parents in default of bail.
